

A SHORT HISTORY

Number 44 Burns Street is a traditional timber home built around 1910, set on generous grounds in a semi-rural location. From the gardens, you'll hear the Mangawhero and Mangateitei rivers flowing past, with Mt Ruapehu rising in the distance. For over a century, this residence has been a cherished family home. Since 2010, it has undergone continuous restoration and expansion, always with care to preserve its original charm and elegance.

Inspired by the rivers and mountain views, in 2018, Two Rivers Ohakune opened its doors to guests, blending heritage character with modern luxury.

Scott and Ula Tansley welcome you to Two Rivers, bringing warmth, care, and a sense of connection to every guest experience. Their goal is simple: to offer a place of privacy, serenity, and luxury where every guest can rest, reconnect, and create their own memories of Ruapehu.
